

SAY BOY FORGER CASHED 20 CHECKS

In Addition the Police Say He Stole Silk Valued at $10,000.

An alleged boy forger, who, the police say, has a great future before him in his line, was arraigned in the Jefferson Market Court today in the person of Herman Lebowitz, nineteen years old.

The charge laid against him to-day is forgery of checks in the name of the firm of Heller, Rothschild & Lang, of No. 115 Fifth avenue, but the police are working up another case involving the theft by means of a forged order of silk worth $10,000 from the pier of the Benjamin Franklin Transportation Company, at Franklin street and the North River.

Lebowitz's greatest asset, according to former employers who have complained against him, is his engaging personality. They say he is able to impress most anybody with his straightforward honesty. As a proof of this they declare that he cashed more than twenty forged checks in the saloons and cigar stores in the district bounded by Fourth and Fifth avenues and Fourteenth and Twenty-second street.

The checks were for small amounts and were tendered in payment for drinks and cigars. Lebowitz getting usually less than $5 in change.

Lebowitz was employed three years ago as a junior clerk or office boy by Heller, Rothschild & Lang, but left them after a few months. The checks which began to drift in from the bank about four weeks ago were drawn on the Corn Exchange Bank and made payable to either Henry Landsman or David Kaufman. Solomon Heller investigated and found that the description saloon keepers gave of Kaufman and Landsman fitted Lebowitz.

Lebowitz was arrested last night at Broadway and Eighth street by Detective Sergeant Cuddy and Richard. He refused to give his address, saying he had no home, although he was well dressed and had several dollars with him. At the regular lineup and inspection of crooks at Headquarters to-day Detective Sergeant Kusner and Duff took a keen interest in young Lebowitz.

They said that on Jan. 7, 1905, while Lebowitz was employed by B. Kauffman & Co., of No. 719 Broadway, he forged an order for ten cases of silk valued at $10,000 that had been consigned to his employers.

The detectives say that Lebowitz came with a truck and two workmen to the pier, and after presenting the forged order got away with the goods. He smiled pleasantly at the plain clothes cops as they questioned him to-day, but said he didn't really care to talk to them.

MEIZ IS TO SUE ALL THE SEWER GRAFTERS.

Wants to Recover Cash Paid Out
By City on Fraudulent Claims.

Comptroller Metz took the first step to-day toward recovering money paid out by the city on fraudulent sewer claims. He sent Corporation Counsel Delaney a letter asking advice as to the proper proceeding to take in the case.

The trial recently had in the County Court of King County, before Judge Crane, of William O. Miles and others upon indictment for criminal conspiracy, he wrote, "developed the fact that money has been recovered in the past upon fraudulent sewer damage claims, or upon such claims which had very little foundation in fact."

"I think it would be wise that legal steps be taken against the persons who improperly obtained money on fraudulent sewer claims to compel such persons to reimburse the city for all money received by them, but to which they were not entitled. I, therefore, wish you to advise me as to what steps it will be necessary to take in the premises, and also as to the wisdom of bringing actions to recover money fraudulently obtained from the city."

A ROCK

BALTIC

By Robert Barr

BEGINS IN

Next Sunday's World

The advance announcements of the fact that twelve great authors' next new novels will appear prior to book publication in the SUNDAY WORLD at the rate of one new novel each month has brought a flood of extra orders to the newsdealers for the opening section of ROBERT BARR'S great novel of action, mystery and romance entitled "A ROCK IN THE BALTIC," which will commence on SUNDAY, MAY 6.

Extraordinary Career

OF AN

American Heiress

Miss Dorothy Amhurst, the famed Bar Harbor beauty who attracted considerable notice through her unexpected inheritance of $15,000,000, and her subsequent strange disappearance, has returned to America, and the account of her adventures during the several months of her absence is on a par with an Arabian Nights tale for absorbing interest and incredible episode.

Her absence was connected with the baffling mystery surrounding the kidnapping of Prince Lermontoff, of Russia, and the vanishing of Alan Drummond, of His British Majesty's navy, in St.
Petersburg. Although the whole matter has not heretofore been made public, it is now set forth in vivid interest-compelling fashion by Robert Barr, the great English novelist, in his latest and best novel, "A Rock in the Baltic."

"A Rock in the Baltic" is a bit of epoch-making fiction. It is the first of a series of twelve great novels by the foremost living writers which are to be published during the forthcoming year in the SUNDAY WORLD, which has secured the exclusive serial rights to each novel.
